NEP AUDIT REPORT

Date of Audit: 15 October 2026
External Expert: Ms. Aparna Kulkarni, St. Xavier's College and Ms. Varsha Malwade, Ramnarain Ruia College.
Audit Coordinator: Dr. Sarita Mahadik, NEP Nodal Officer

K.P.B. Hinduja College of Commerce conducted an NEP Audit to review the implementation of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 across the relevant academic programmes and departments of the college. The audit aimed to assess the implementation of NEP-related academic reforms, curriculum restructuring, credit-based learning, multidisciplinary education, skill enhancement, and other relevant academic initiatives.

The objectives of the NEP Audit were:

1. To review the implementation of NEP 2020 in the academic programmes offered by the college.
2. To examine compliance with the applicable University of Mumbai guidelines and institutional requirements.
3. To verify curriculum structure, course outcomes, credits, and assessment practices.
4. To review the implementation of skill-based, multidisciplinary, and value-added courses.
5. To assess the maintenance of relevant academic records and supporting documentation.
6. To identify gaps and recommend measures for effective implementation of NEP 2020.

The audit was conducted under the coordination of Dr. Sarita Mahadik, NEP Nodal Officer, with the participation of the concerned SFC Coordinators as per the scheduled audit slots.
The external expert reviewed the relevant documents and records presented by the respective coordinators. The audit focused on the applicable academic structure, curriculum implementation, course documentation, assessment practices, and other NEP-related requirements.

The following areas were considered for review:

- Implementation of the revised undergraduate curriculum under NEP 2020.
- Programme structure, course allocation, and credit distribution.
- Implementation of multidisciplinary and skill enhancement courses.
- Internship, project-based learning, and experiential learning provisions.
- Assessment methods and evaluation procedures.
- Academic documentation and maintenance of supporting records.
- Implementation of the four-year undergraduate programme, including Honours and Honours with Research, wherever applicable.
- Compliance with applicable University of Mumbai guidelines and institutional directions.
