Orientation Session for YCMOU students' Academic Year 2026–27

The Smt. P. D. Hinduja Trust Institute of Management Studies, at K.P. B. Hinduja College of Commerce, Sadhana House, Pandurang Budhkar Marg, Worli, Mumbai – 400018, organized an orientation session for the YCMOU students the academic year 2026–27 on October 18, 2026.

The session was attended all students as well as visiting faculty members of the college. The programme commenced with the introductory remarks by Dr. Rustam Tajne, followed by the lighting of the ceremonial lamp, the offering of a floral garland to the idol of Lord Ganesha, and the rendition of the university anthem. The faculty members present were warmly welcomed.

Subsequently, Dr. Rustam Tajne familiarized the students with the vision and policies of the university, the academic curriculum, and the library and management systems at Hinduja College.

Prof. Kalpana Shah shared valuable insights and guidance regarding the structure of the academic programmes and the course content, including prescribed textbooks, offered by Yashwantrao Chavan Maharashtra Open University (YCMOU).

Prof. Gaurav Kamble provided a detailed explanation of the functioning of the university's distance education system, while Prof. Shamim Shaikh guided the students through the university's online assessment process. These sessions helped students gain a better understanding of the academic framework, learning resources, and evaluation procedures.

Mr. Kishor Malap and Manaswi Raorane extended valuable support in the successful organization and smooth conduct of the programme.

The orientation session concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Rustam Tajne. He expressed his sincere gratitude to the event organizers, the P. D. Hinduja Trust, Yashwantrao Chavan Maharashtra Open University, the faculty members, the students, and all those present for their valuable contributions and participation.

The programme served as an informative and welcoming introduction to the academic year 2026–27, helping students become familiar with the university's academic structure, distance learning system, and assessment procedures.
