REPORT ON PARTICIPATION IN MALHAR 2026

Date: 6th September 2026, Sunday

K. P. B. Hinduja College of Commerce enthusiastically participated in Malhar 2026, the prestigious inter-collegiate cultural festival organized by St. Xavier's College, Mumbai, from 13th August to 15th August 2026. The festival provided a vibrant platform for students from colleges across Mumbai to showcase their talents in cultural, literary, artistic, and performing arts events.

The Students' Council and Cultural Committee encouraged students to participate in various competitions and represent the college at this renowned festival. Through their participation, students gained valuable exposure, developed confidence, enhanced teamwork, and experienced healthy inter-collegiate competition.

Students from different courses participated in a diverse range of events including Dance, Fashion Show, Classical Dance, Drama, JAM, Pitcher Abhi Baki Hai, Sound of Silence, Shakespeare in the Dark, Final Frame, Out of Tools, and Slam It Down. Their dedication, enthusiasm, and commitment reflected the spirit of K. P. B. Hinduja College of Commerce.

The college is proud of all the participants who represented the institution with sincerity and enthusiasm. Such festivals play a significant role in nurturing creativity, leadership, communication skills, and overall personality development among students.
