REPORT ON SANSKRIT WEEK CELEBRATION

Date: 24th - 29th August 2026, Sunday

Venue : K.P.B. Hinduja College of Commerce

The Students' Council, Cultural Committee, and Marathi Vangmay Mandal of K.P.B. Hinduja College of Commerce successfully organized "Sanskrit Week" from 24th August to 29th August with the objective of promoting the richness of Sanskrit and Marathi languages and fostering an appreciation for India's cultural and literary heritage among students. The week-long celebration, conducted under the theme "Celebrate Our Language, Connect with Our Heritage," witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across various courses and classes.

Day 1 – 24th August (Monday)

Inauguration and Guess the Sanskrit & Marathi Word Game

The celebration commenced with an inaugural ceremony attended by students and faculty members. The importance of Sanskrit and Marathi in preserving India's cultural traditions and literary legacy was highlighted. Following the inauguration, a "Guess the Sanskrit & Marathi Word Game" was organized. Students actively participated in the activity, testing their vocabulary and language skills while learning new words and meanings in a fun and interactive manner. The event generated enthusiasm and set a positive tone for the week ahead.

Day 2 – 25th August (Tuesday)

Cultural Activities – Dance, Singing and Poem Recitation

The second day featured a variety of cultural performances showcasing the talents of students. Participants enthusiastically presented dance performances, singing renditions, and poem recitations inspired by Indian traditions, values, and literature. The event provided a platform for students to express their creativity while celebrating the beauty of Sanskrit and Marathi through art and performance. The audience appreciated the efforts of all participants, making the day both entertaining and memorable.

Day 3 – 26th August (Wednesday)

Sanskrit–Marathi Creative Essay Writing Competition and Sanskrit Quiz Competition

The third day focused on enhancing students' literary and intellectual abilities. The Sanskrit–Marathi Creative Essay Writing Competition encouraged participants to articulate their thoughts on topics related to language, culture, and heritage. Students demonstrated originality, creativity, and a deep understanding of the significance of both languages.

The Sanskrit Quiz Competition was also conducted, where participants answered questions related to Sanskrit literature, grammar, history, and culture. The competition proved to be highly informative and competitive, encouraging students to expand their knowledge while engaging in healthy academic rivalry.

Day 4 – 27th August (Thursday) Sanskrit Shlok Recitation Competition

The fourth day was dedicated to the Sanskrit Shlok Recitation Competition. Students recited various Sanskrit shlokas with proper pronunciation, expression, and understanding of their meanings. The competition highlighted the beauty, rhythm, and wisdom contained within Sanskrit literature. Participants displayed remarkable confidence and dedication, making the event a meaningful and enriching experience for everyone present.

Day 5 – 28th August (Friday)

Poster Making Competition, Storytelling Video Competition and Online Seminar

The fifth day comprised creative and educational activities aimed at encouraging students to explore Sanskrit and Marathi in innovative ways. The Sanskrit–Marathi Poster Making Competition enabled participants to creatively depict themes related to language, culture, and heritage through artistic expression. The posters reflected originality, imagination, and a strong appreciation for India's linguistic traditions.

Students also participated in the Sanskrit Storytelling Video Competition, where they presented stories through engaging digital formats, demonstrating both creativity and language proficiency.

A special highlight of the day was an online seminar conducted by Jyoti Bharti Ma'am. The session focused on the importance and relevance of Sanskrit and Marathi languages in contemporary society. Jyoti Bharti Ma'am spoke about the cultural, literary, and historical significance of both languages and emphasized the need to preserve and promote them among the younger generation. The seminar provided valuable insights into the role of language in shaping identity and heritage. Students attended the session enthusiastically and gained a deeper understanding of the importance of Sanskrit and Marathi in today's world.

Day 6 – 29th August (Saturday)

Sanskrit–Marathi Treasure Hunt and Closing Ceremony

The final day of Sanskrit Week featured an exciting Sanskrit–Marathi Treasure Hunt, which combined language learning with problem-solving and teamwork. Participants solved clues and completed challenges based on Sanskrit and Marathi words, phrases, and cultural references. The activity was both educational and enjoyable, encouraging students to apply their knowledge in an interactive setting.

The celebration concluded with the Closing Ceremony, during which the efforts of all participants, volunteers, faculty coordinators, and organizing committee members were acknowledged and appreciated. The winners of various competitions conducted throughout the week were felicitated for their outstanding performances. The ceremony concluded with a vote of thanks and a message encouraging students to continue exploring and preserving India's rich linguistic and cultural heritage.

Conclusion

The Sanskrit Week Celebration at K.P.B. Hinduja College of Commerce was a resounding success. Through a diverse range of literary, cultural, creative, and educational activities conducted over six days, students were provided with valuable opportunities to engage with the richness of Sanskrit and Marathi languages. The enthusiastic participation of students and the insightful seminar by Jyoti Bharti Ma'am significantly contributed to the success of the event. The celebration successfully strengthened students' connection with India's linguistic traditions and cultural roots, truly reflecting the spirit of the theme:

“Celebrate Our Language, Connect With Our Heritage.”
