Week was observed from 5th to 11th October, and in India it was celebrated under the aegis of IOSCO and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI). As part of these observances, ANMI organised "Investistiya 4.0" on 6 October 2026 at the NSE Auditorium, Mumbai, with NSE as the Venue Partner.

The event was held under the theme "Samajh Se Investing Simple" and aimed to help young investors and students understand a range of investment avenues, including Mutual Funds, Stocks, REITs, InvITs, Bonds and Commodities. Students of K. P. B. Hinduja College of Commerce (Autonomous) attended the event and also took part in the programme through a skit performance.

ii. Objectives

The event was organised to:

- Promote investor awareness and financial literacy among students and young investors.
- Encourage informed, knowledge-based investing in line with the theme "Samajh Se Investing Simple".
- Create awareness about investor protection, including how to identify and avoid scams on social media.
- Provide students with exposure to market participants, regulators and industry professionals at a leading institution of the Indian capital market.

Time	Programme
4:20 PM	Special Session – “How To Navigate Through Social Media Scams” by SEBI
5:30 PM	Vote of Thanks

iv. Course of the Event

Inaugural Session. The programme began with the National Anthem, followed by the ceremonial Lighting of the Lamp and the Bell Ringing Ceremony, and the felicitation of the dignitaries. Mr. Kamlesh Shroff, National President, ANMI, delivered the Welcome Address. This was followed by addresses from the Guest of Honour from NSE and from Ms. Deepti Agrawal, CGM, SEBI, and the Chief Guest address by Mr. Amit Pradhan, Executive Director, SEBI. The session concluded with a Vote of Thanks.

Addresses by the Institutional Leaders:

1. Principal of K. P. B. Hinduja College of Commerce Prof. (Dr.) Navin Mukesh Punjabi addressed the gathering and emphasized on importance of financial literacy.

Some Pointers from the Address by the Principal

- “Get educated so that you are empowered to protect yourself and make informed financial decisions.”
- “SEBI has set guardrails to protect investors. If we keep our antennas switched on, stay alert and understand these safeguards, we can avoid letting our guard down and reduce the risk of losing our hard-earned money.”

Principal Sir’s insightful and thought-provoking speech was highly engaging and successful in arousing interest among the students. Particularly the way sir connected two tier - financial knowledge and financial safety with the interests and needs of Gen Z was particularly valuable and inspiring.

2. The Director of Kohinoor Management School Dr. Svetlana Tatuskar mentioned the benefits of being an informed investor and emphasized on downloading and using the Sarthi app.
